

Give of Yourself

*Give of yourself, give as much as you can!
And you can always give something,
even if it is only kindness!
If everyone were to do this,
then there would be much more justice and love in the world.*

*Give and you shall receive,
much more than you would have ever thought possible.
Give, give again and again,
don't lose courage,
keep it up and go on giving!
No one has ever become poor from giving!*

“A person should feed his or her animal before eating.” (Talmud, Berakhot 40a)

Being Kind to Animals

Tza-ar Ba-alei Hayim צער בעלי חיים

Our tradition regards the life of all of God’s creatures – animals included – as precious. This mitzvah, literally “compassion for the pain of living creatures,” teaches us that people must treat their animals humanely and prevent or minimize their suffering.

Athena's Gourmet Doggie Biscuits

$\frac{3}{4}$ cup hot water

$\frac{1}{3}$ cup margarine

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup powdered milk

3 cups whole wheat flour

$\frac{1}{2}$ tsp salt

2 tsp sugar

1 egg, beaten

In large bowl, pour hot water over margarine. Stir in powdered milk, salt, sugar, and egg. Add flour, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup at a time, mixing well after each addition. Knead 4-5 minutes, adding more flour, if necessary, to make a very stiff dough. Pat or roll to $\frac{1}{4}$ inch thickness, and cut out with cookie cutter. Place on greased baking sheet (or line cookie sheet with parchment paper) and bake 45 minutes at 325 degrees. Allow to cool completely.

"The majority of us lead quiet, unheralded lives as we pass through this world. There will most likely be no ticker-tape parades for us, no monuments created in our honor.

But that does not lessen our possible impact, for there are scores of people waiting for someone just like us to come along; people who will appreciate our compassion, our unique talents. Someone who will live a happier life merely because we took the time to share what we had to give.

Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have a potential to turn a life around. It's overwhelming to consider the continuous opportunities there are to make our love felt."

--Leo Buscaglia

What you can do with used cell phones...

Many organizations are asking for donations of used cell phones and chargers:

- The phone companies re-program them to the "911" number,
- They are donated to victims of domestic violence, a real life-saver. Check with your local domestic violence organizations, cell phone company, or police department, to find out who is organizing the program in your community. You can also go to www.donateaphone.com to find out how to donate a phone.
- 2 students created "Cell Phones for Soldiers" when they learned that soldiers overseas had huge cell phone bills. Go to <http://www.cellphonesforsoldiers.com/pages/1/index.htm> to learn more.

B'nai Mitzvah Tzedakah Ideas

B'nai Mitzvah Invitation Ideas:

- Include a special note asking each guest to bring a specific item to be donated such as a children's book, food item, hotel toiletries, etc
- Instead of a traditional invitation, the Jewish National Fund will print invitations onto their tree certificates. If you order over 100; you will not only receive a discount, but you will have planted a "forest" of trees in Israel in honor of your B'nai Mitzvah! Call JNF at 1-800-700-1312 or locally at (714) 957-4540. Jewish National Fund, 2900 Bristol, Suite C-104, Costa Mesa CA 92626 <http://www.jnf.org/site/PageServer>

Donate a percentage of your gift money to charity, or make a donation in honor of each guest and MAZON will provide stylish personalized gift cards to be placed at the tables instead of party favors. Give 3% of the cost of your B'nai Mitzvah to:

MAZON, A Jewish Response to Hunger

1990 South Bundy Drive, Suite 260; Los Angeles, CA 90025; (310) 442-0020; <http://www.mazon.org/>
Since 1985, MAZON has provided food, help and hope to hungry people of all faiths and backgrounds. It has done so through donations from the Jewish community, which is allocated to the most effective hunger relief organizations in the United States, Israel and in poor countries worldwide.

Ritual Items:

Order beautifully crocheted Yarmulkes and help support Mayan women from the villages of Guatemala. MayaWorks, the organization that sells them, is devoted to reducing poverty and illiteracy by creating markets for these hand-woven products. The income they receive from these sales sometimes makes the difference between 2 or 3 meals a day. Please make sure to mention you heard about them through Ziv Tzedakah Fund/Danny Siegel (see next page). Great for bulk orders for B'nai Mitzvahs, Confirmation classes, and synagogue gift shops. Contact: Kathleen Morkert, mayaworks-chi@attbi.com, 773-506-4905, www.mayaworks.org

Fabulous Tallis Bags Made by Ethiopian Jews: Contact the North American Conference on Ethiopian Jewry, 212-233-5200, NACOEJ@aol.com, www.NACOEJ.org

B'nai Mitzvah Decoration Ideas:

- Make a spectacular food basket/book basket, etc. instead of flowers to be used on bimah, and then donate.
- Instead of traditional centerpieces, make: pails filled with toys; gym bags filled with sporting goods; tote bags filled with books; and attach note to these creative containers stating which charity will be receiving them.
- Instead of candles for a "Candle-lighting Ceremony", honor your family and friends by having gift containers, pretty wrapped boxes, etc. that will go to various charities. You can even coordinate organizations that match the personality of those you are honoring!

Send leftover B'nai Mitzvah food to a shelter.

Many families create a Bar/Bat Mitzvah service booklet to help explain the service to their guests. One great addition to your booklet is to include a “13 Tzedakah Organizations” page listing your family’s favorite organizations for donating time and money. This is yet another way to share that helping others is a part of being Jewish.

Continue your Mitzvah project after your B’nai Mitzvah.

“Few will have the greatness to bend history itself,
but each one of us can work to change a small portion of events, and in the total of all those acts will be written the history of this generation.”

—Robert Kennedy
